

RAELIN — Keeper of Keys

ROUND 1 SLIP

DEFENSE / DIALOGUE (SAY WHEN ASKED):
"My keys only log when official doors open. If someone slipped through an unmonitored window, the main entrance logs wouldn't catch it."

OBSERVATION TO SHARE (TELL OTHER GUESTS THIS ROUND!):
"The Curator was furious earlier today about unlogged access breaches, warning that someone was using master clearance to tamper with historical vault records."

CLAIRE — Order Keeper

ROUND 1 SLIP

DEFENSE / DIALOGUE (SAY WHEN ASKED):
"I was standing near the front door checking guest check-in logs the entire time before the Curator arrived."

OBSERVATION TO SHARE (TELL OTHER GUESTS THIS ROUND!):
"The central card key reader logs all electronic entries, but physical master keys can open window latches without leaving any digital trace."

SARAH — Nocturnal Photographer

ROUND 1 SLIP

DEFENSE / DIALOGUE (SAY WHEN ASKED):
"I was setting up my camera equipment in the main hall. I didn't step foot inside the Rare Books Gallery!"

OBSERVATION TO SHARE (TELL OTHER GUESTS THIS ROUND!):
"The lighting in the courtyard garden was unusually bright tonight—someone left the gallery window blinds half-open before guests arrived."

BROOKLYN — Underground Publisher

ROUND 1 SLIP

DEFENSE / DIALOGUE (SAY WHEN ASKED):
"The Curator was silencing everyone who knew too much. Half the people in this room had reason to want him quiet."

OBSERVATION TO SHARE (TELL OTHER GUESTS THIS ROUND!):
"I heard John threatened several members with public exposure tonight over leaked votes, altered archives, and illicit deals."
