

BARNABY’S MENAGERIE & EXOTIC ANIMALS

Purveyors of Fine Beasts, Curiosities & Zoological Specimens
74 Cobblestone Lane, North Quarter • Order Ref: #1926–FF–037

PAID IN FULL (CASH)

DATE OF SALE: OCTOBER 22, 1926

BILLED TO: Arthur (Apprentice Keykeeper) DESTINATION: Rear Service Cellar / Coal Chute
SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS: "Crates must be labeled 'Archival Binding Glue & Vellum'. Deliver after dusk."

QTY	ITEM DESCRIPTION	UNIT PRICE	TOTAL
37	Domestic Ferrets (Mustela putorius furo) Notes: Highly active, agile burrowers, mischievous temperament.	$2.50	$92.50
—	 SPECIAL VOLUME BULK DISCOUNT APPLIED (-$0.75/ea) 	-$0.75	-$27.75
04	Ventilated Cedar Transport Crates (Quick-Release Latches)	$1.50	$6.00
TOTAL AMOUNT PAID:			$70.75

🔍 CURATOR'S AUDIT ANNOTATION (OCTOBER 24)

"Found misfiled behind the 1926 Annual Gala ledger. Raelin’s great-grandfather Arthur negotiated a volume bulk discount on thirty-seven live ferrets two days prior to the gala disaster. Julian Vance was completely innocent—Arthur planted the transport crates in Vance's locker to frame him and claim the hereditary Keeper of Keys title. The entire family legacy is a fraudulent cover-up. To be presented at midnight."

— J. Curator